

I am a subscriber of XM Radio, and I resent the lobbying efforts of the NAB to limit that which can be offered to me. I need instant information on weather and traffic, and XM Radio is the only source for that. I listen to commercial radio as well, so there is no valid reason to limit my choices.